Bunnings also put on a car show and Christmas party with not much notice. It went off very well with Dave Laybutt gaining peoples choice award with his green Torana. They did a good job with this and next year will see it bigger and better with more coverage.

Young Motor Cycle Club also ran a very successful Toy Run to Young, Harden and Boorowa with proceeds distributed to selected charities in the three towns. Next Year they would be pleased to also have any cars that would like attend.

Events: Christmas Lights optional runs, 15th to 28th December.

Australia Day 26th January. Cowra or any venue of your choice.

Young Club Run –Jugiong 12th Feb. BBQ, Geoff. Hill.

Kalimna Rally- 3rd /6th March at Wangaratta Vic.

Pre 31 Tour- 4th /9th May.

General Business.

Decided to have a BBQ for our January Meeting.

Two long time club members Col Harmer and Les McDonnell together with Founding Member Barry Rose were awarded life membership of Young Heritage Motor Club at our recent 50th Anniversary Celebration Dinner .

Peter Kinsela was also awarded Life Membership of Young Heritage Motor Club at our December meeting. All of these members have put in enormous time and effort over many years.

With regard to Bursons Cherry Festival Car Show ,it was decided by our committee to have a friendly discussion with the organisers regarding the future judging parameters and ideas for next years show, but acknowledge they put a lot of time, effort and money into this years show.

Discussion on overnight run next year to the Rabbit Trap Hotel at Albert in April 2023. Check on dates.

Discussion was also held on suitability of large trucks in our club and also think about future vehicles that come into the club such as dual cab and similar later model vehicles, do these qualify as suitable heritage vehicles?

Suggested to talk to Graeme Bell regarding Large Truck Regos.

Meeting closed at 8:36 pm.

Next Meeting will be held on 11 th January 2023.
